Idea

Accounting & finance academia in Veles

With our level of experience, we want to give our knowledge to everyone interested in accounting. In Veles, there is no academia or courses for that, and the applicants are forced to travel to another city, spending time and money, or have an online classes, which in our field can not give best results. So, the idea is to start this kind of academia for practical accounting, which you can't get in our universities, here in Veles.
